When electing shop stewards the Union will endeavour to elect stewards from as many work areas as possible.

9.02 No Shop Steward shall suffer any loss of pay for time lost in processing complaints or attending grievance meetings. However, such Shop Steward shall not leave their regular duties for the purpose of conducting union business or to discuss any business in respect of a grievance without first obtaining the permission of their Department Head or Division Manager. Such permission will not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 10
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.01 Definition of Grievance

A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of the terms of this collective agreement.

10.02 Types of Grievances

For the purpose of this collective agreement, there shall be four (4) types of grievances as follows:

- (a) Employee grievance - a grievance initiated by an individual employee;
- (b) Group grievance - a grievance submitted by, or on behalf of, two or more employees alleging the same violation of the collective agreement;
- (c) Union grievance - a grievance initiated by the Union which involves a question of general application or interpretation of the collective agreement;
- (d) Employer grievance - a grievance initiated by the Employer.

10.03 Grievance Procedure

Subject to clauses 10.04, 10.07 and 10.08, grievances shall be processed in the following manner. For the purposes of Level I, Level II, Level III and Level IV days refer to the working days of the organization and not the working days of the employee.

Level I An employee who alleges that they have a grievance shall first present the matter to their Shop Steward within five (5) working days after becoming aware of the occurrence of the incident which gave rise to the grievance, or, in the absence of their regular Shop Steward, another Shop Steward or the Chief Shop Steward.

Level II If the Steward considers the grievance to be justified then the grievance shall, within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance by the Shop Steward, be submitted to the employee's Division Manager or designate, who shall answer in writing to the grievor within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance.

Level III If the employee fails to receive a satisfactory answer to the grievance within five (5) working days after filing the grievance at Level II, they may within a further five (5) working days, submit their grievance in writing to the Director of Regional Services, who shall answer in writing to the grievor within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance.

Level IV If the grievance is still not satisfactorily resolved by the foregoing procedure, the employee, or the Union in the case of a union grievance, may, within the ten (10) working day period immediately following receipt of the decision given under Level III, submit the grievance to arbitration.

10.04 In the case of dismissal, a grievance may be submitted in the first instance at Level III as outlined in Clause 10.03. In such a case, the time limit outlined in Level I for the submission of the grievance shall apply.

10.05 An employee may be accompanied by a Shop Steward at any stage of the grievance procedure if they so wish.

10.06 The Union and its representatives shall have the right to originate a grievance on behalf of an employee or a group of employees and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided in the Grievance Procedure. Such a grievance shall commence at Level II.

10.07 Union Grievance

Where the Union has a grievance involving a question of general application or interpretation of this collective agreement, Levels I and II of the Grievance Procedure may be by-passed.

10.08 Employer Grievance

Where the Employer has a grievance, it shall be submitted in the first instance to the President of the Union local. Should the matter not be satisfactorily resolved within ten (10) days after the matter was submitted to the President, the Employer may refer the matter to arbitration.

10.09 Submission of Grievance and Replies

Any grievance shall be submitted in writing specifying the particular section(s) of the collective agreement which has allegedly been violated, as well as written particulars as to the redress requested. Replies to grievances stating reasons shall be in writing at all stages.

10.10 The time limits specified in the grievance procedure may only be changed with the written consent of the Union and the Employer.

- 10.11 This collective agreement is fully applicable to all employees listed in Schedule A-3, with the exception that the termination of a probationary employee for reasons of unsuitability or incompetence, as assessed by the Employer, is not subject to the grievance or arbitration procedure, other than on the grounds of discrimination.
- 10.12 No grievance shall be defeated or denied by any technical objection occasioned by a clerical, typographical or similar technical error, or by the omission of a step in the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 11 ARBITRATION

11.01 When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made in writing, addressed to the other party of the Agreement, indicating the name of its nominee to the arbitration board. Within fourteen (14) calendar days thereafter, the other party shall answer in writing indicating the name of its nominee to the arbitration board. The two nominees shall then, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the appointment of the second of them, select an impartial chairperson for the Board. If the party receiving notice fails to appoint an arbitrator within the specified time limit, or if two nominees fail to agree upon a chairperson within the specified time limit, the Minister Responsible for Labour shall, on the request of either party, make the necessary appointment.

11.02 Decision of the Board

Subject to either party referring an arbitration decision for a judicial review, the decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final, binding and enforceable on all parties. The Board of Arbitration shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions. However, subject to that provision, the Board shall have the power to dispose of a grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable, including a determination that a grievance is not arbitrable.

11.03 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Board's decision, either party may, within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the Board's decision, apply to the Chairperson of the Board of Arbitration to reconvene the Board to clarify the decision, which it shall do within five (5) days.

11.04 Expenses of the Board

Each party shall pay:

- (i) the fees and expenses of the nominee it appoints;
- (ii) one-half (1/2) the fees and expenses of the chairperson

11.05 Amendment of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be extended by written mutual agreement between the parties.

11.06 Single Arbitrator

The parties may mutually agree to the appointment of a single arbitrator instead of an arbitration board, in which event the foregoing provisions shall apply with the necessary changes.

ARTICLE 12
DISCIPLINE

12.01 (a) A copy of any document placed on an employee's personal file which might at any time be the basis for disciplinary action shall be removed from the personal file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was placed in the employee's personal file, providing another warning or reprimand relating to the same or similar offence has not been given within that period. The employee shall be responsible to see that any such document is removed.

(b) There shall be one official personal file, the location of which shall be designated by the permanent head. An employee shall, after making an appointment with the Director of Regional Services, be permitted to view their personal file at a mutually convenient time and may be accompanied by a representative of the Union if desired.

(c) A copy of any document placed on an employee's official personal file which might at any time be the basis of disciplinary action, shall be supplied concurrently to the employee who shall acknowledge having received such document by signing the file copy. The employee's signature does not necessarily indicate the employee agrees with the contents of the document.

12.02 The employee's written reply to any such document shall become part of their personal file. This reply shall be removed from the file at the same time as the document referred to in Clause 12.01(a).

12.03 An employee may be disciplined or dismissed but only for just cause. Any employee who is suspended or dismissed shall, within five (5) working days of such suspension or dismissal, be provided with written particulars and reasons for the suspension or dismissal. 17. Where not all appellants agree to consolidation, the Classification Appeal Adjudicator will first decide on a consolidated basis the appeals of those appellants who are in agreement with consolidation. Those appellants not in agreement shall be provided an opportunity for individual review, as soon as practical following the determination of a consolidated appeal.
18. When the Classification Appeal Adjudicator renders a decision on those factors challenged on the basis of the written documentation, notification of such decision on those factors challenged shall be forwarded to the Classification & Organizational Design Division. The Classification & Organizational Design Division will notify and provide the necessary authority to the employing agency as well as provide a copy of the Classification Appeal Adjudicator's decision and the impact, if any, on the position to the appellant and their designate.

19. If a hearing is warranted, the appellant, a permanent head or management designate and a representative of Classification & Organizational Design Division may be requested to appear before the Classification Appeal Adjudicator.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Re: Nurses Committee

The parties acknowledge that the Registered Nurses' Union Newfoundland and Labrador (RNUNL) have indicated that they have issues of concern unique to Nurses who live and work in Labrador and that the RNUNL will attempt to address these concerns through a committee which will be established subsequent to these negotiations.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Re: Labrador Benefits Agreement - Interpretation

In an effort to clarify the interpretation of certain items contained in the Labrador Benefits Agreement the parties agree to the following:

- 1) Article 4.2(b) refers to employees who terminate employment, (i.e. are not on layoff status and do not have recall rights). These employees have their Travel Allowance paid out based on the hours worked in the current year and it shall be paid out at the rate in effect on the date employment is terminated.
- 2) For the purposes of Article 4.4 it is agreed that an employee may refuse to claim the employee benefit if it is to their benefit to have their spouse claim them as a dependant. Employees who exercise this option will not be entitled to any portion of the Employee Travel Allowance. It is incumbent on the employee to communicate this choice to their respective Employer(s).
- 3) Notwithstanding Schedule A, the following employee shall be entitled, on a without prejudice basis, to the rates applicable to Mud Lake as long as they remain within the employ of their current Employer and continue to permanently reside in Mud Lake:
Vyann Kerby, Health Labrador Corporation

This agreement is effective from April 1, 2013 and shall expire upon the renewal of the Labrador Benefits Agreement expiring March 31, 2016.

- 4) For the purposes of clarification and in accordance with Article 3.1 (Labrador Allowance), Article 4.1 (Travel Allowance) and Article 9.1 (Definitions), benefits are applicable for the fiscal year (April 1 to March 31) in which a dependent reaches 18 years of age or 24 years of age, if the dependent is in full time attendance at a school or post-secondary institution. Full time attendance shall be determined by the educational institution in which a dependent is registered.

For example:

If a dependent reaches 18 years of age on January 1, 2011 and is no longer enrolled as a full time student in a post secondary institution, they would be eligible for the travel benefit payable April 15, 2011.

HEALTH INSURANCE

There is agreement to extend the benefits of the current group health and insurance plan to temporary employees effective April 1, 2002. The eligibility criteria at that time was amended as follows:

It is understood and agreed that effective April 1, 2002, eligibility under the group insurance programs, policies 7600 and 3412, is hereby amended to include the following class of employees, subject to the following:

- Employees who have worked 50% or greater of the normal working hours in the previous calendar year will qualify for group insurance benefits as a condition of employment effective April 1, 2002.
- Annual review on January 1st of each year will determine eligibility, continued enrollment or termination of coverage under these programs. Should an employee terminate employment, all coverages under the programs terminate the date of termination.
- For the purpose of determining group life insurance coverage, the amount will be based upon twice their annual salary, subject to a minimum amount of $10,000.
- Employees determined to be eligible by the Employer for coverage under these group programs, based on the number of hours worked in the previous year, will not be required to produce evidence of insurability as enrollment is mandatory and a condition of employment.

As a result of the 2004 round of negotiations, the following was also agreed:

1. Employees determined to be eligible for coverage under the Desjardin Plan shall be continued for the full twelve (12) month period commencing April 1st of each year as long as they remain actively employed and pay the required premiums.
2. Temporary employees covered under this Agreement who are determined to be eligible will access group insurance programs that are currently available.
3. Premiums for these employees must be collected through payroll deductions.
4. Employees who accessed Maternity, Adoption and/or Parental Leave during the previous calendar year will be allowed to count, for eligibility purposes, the hours worked during such leave by the next senior employee in that period.

5. Premiums for employees who are off payroll for one (1) or more periods will be recovered from the next cheque unless extenuating circumstances exist. This procedure for the recovery of premiums applies only to health care groups. Existing arrangements for the recovery of premiums in other sectors shall continue for the life of that Agreement.
6. Employees who miss a payroll for reasons other than approved unpaid sick leave are required to pay 100% of the premiums.
7. Employees on unpaid sick leave are required to present supporting medical documentation to the Employer during the current pay period.
8. If necessary, a further review of the premium recovery process will occur within six (6) months of the signing of the relevant Collective Agreements.

This wording reflects amendments to the eligibility guidelines only as complete terms and policy conditions are set out in actual contracts on file with Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, the policyholder.

9. Group Insurance Committee Membership

With respect to the membership of the Group Insurance Committee, it is understood and agreed that the complement of groups represented will remain unchanged throughout the term of this agreement.

Dear Ms. Pinder:

Re: Public Health Emergency

The Employer recognizes that public health emergencies may have an impact on overall government operations and service delivery, individual employees, and the residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Employer further recognizes that not all public health emergencies will require the same emergency response requirements and/or public health directives and will require an evaluation of such response based on the nature of the emergency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, general principles will apply to impacted employees in the event of a public health emergency.

- 1) Self-Isolation – employees directed by their Employer or Public Health – Department of Health and Community Services to self-isolate, and who are asymptomatic of a public health illness may (where applicable - this may be dependent on vaccination or other considerations deemed appropriate by the Employer) be placed on special leave with pay for the hours in which they are unable to report to work up to the maximum of their regular bi-weekly hours. Employees who work less than full time hours will receive the benefit on a pro-rata basis. Temporary call-in employees who are not prescheduled, will be permitted to take special leave with pay on shifts they would have received in normal circumstances (compared to next junior temporary call-in).

Employees will not be required to provide medical documentation for this period of hours, unless there is sufficient reason on the part of the Employer to request such documentation. All other absences require employees to utilize their leave entitlements until they return to work.

- 2) Remote Work - employees may be required to work remotely where the capability exists and it is operationally feasible. Special leave with pay shall only be utilized in instances where remote work is not an option.
- 3) Use of Sick Leave - employees who exhibit symptoms of a public health illness and who cannot work remotely, are required to use their sick leave entitlement until they return to work. Functional Abilities Information related to accommodation requests, extensions, illness unrelated to the current public health emergency, use of long-term sick leave and attendance support planning may still be required.

- 4) Re-Deployment - the Parties recognize that the Employer may be required to redeploy human resources to ensure adequate and safe staffing levels, and such re-deployment shall be done in consultation with the Union.

The parties further agree to enter into agreements as necessary to address other issues arising from a public health emergency that may not be covered by this letter.

Sincerely,

Fiona Ellis
Director of Collective Bargaining

Dear Ms. Pinder:

Re: Statutory Holiday Replacement

Each year, an employee shall be entitled to designate replacement statutory holiday(s) that are days of cultural or religious significance to the employee in place of any or all of the statutory holidays outlined in the collective agreement. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

For the purposes of this letter, cultural or religious significance shall be defined as: A day in which a religious observation is held or a day that celebrates the culture of a particular nation, people, or other social group.

The Employee shall inform the Employer of their choice(s), in writing, prior to November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect. Such notice shall state clearly which statutory holiday(s) the employee is replacing and which day(s) of cultural or religious significance, including the dates on which they occur, that they are designating in the stead of the replaced statutory holiday(s).

Where the specific date(s) of cultural or religious significance are not yet confirmed on or before November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, the Employee will notify the Employer of the day(s) of significance and will provide date(s) as soon as they become available. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests received after November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, subject to operational requirements and availability of replacement staff. Requests will not be unreasonably be denied.

Such statutory holiday replacement, once designated, will not be amendable for the applicable calendar year. The Employer will grant the newly designated holiday(s) as paid day(s) off. Once designated per the above process, the newly named holiday(s) shall be the day(s) to which all rights which are normally associated with the specific statutory holiday being replaced are now applied:

- (a) The newly designated holiday days will attract all benefits of the collective agreement as if that day were the actual statutory holiday that they are designated to replace.
- (b) The replaced statutory holiday(s) will become a regular day, whether it be a workday or a day of rest, and will not attract any additional benefit previously attributable to it as a statutory holiday: all such benefits will have transferred to the designated replacement day(s).

- (c) Where the Employer does not provide service on a day described under b) above, and where the employee is scheduled to work on that day of the week, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to provide meaningful work, including work from home arrangements, to the employee on that day.
- (d) Where the employer has determined it is unable to provide meaningful work on that day, the Employer, the Employee, and a representative of the Union will meet as soon as possible to discuss alternate work arrangements. If no resolution is still possible, the employee may access banked overtime and other like paid banks, or in a last resort, vacation leave to cover the missed day of work.

Sincerely,

Fiona Ellis
Director of Collective Bargaining
